

TERM 1

23 FEBRUARY 2023

Carrum Newsletter

G'day Carrum Primary,
we have made it to
week four of 2023
already, which shows
how fast time goes by.

During these four weeks,
lots has happened. In fact,
one of those things
involves the 5/6 camp in week three, an outstanding camp at Woorabinda.

At 9am, all of the 5/6s were bursting with excitement as the bus started up and marked the beginning of our hour and a half bus ride to a place 3km away from our final destination. The reason we stopped here was because we were going to go on a hike to camp. Halfway through the walk, we stopped at a cookout site in the bush to make our own fires and cook our own sausages on them. The sausages were delicious, but all too soon we had to continue our hike. Everyone started to complain about their poor legs, but luckily we arrived at camp just in time. After we were shown around the camp, the cabins got announced and everyone dumped their bags and went outside to wait for dinner.

Dinner was a delicious meal of roast pork and corn, which everyone enjoyed. Dessert was chocolate and raspberry mousse, which was a big hit. When everyone had a full stomach, we went to the assembly hall to do some trivia. At 9:00, it was time to go to sleep, (which everyone found hard because of how excited we were) and prepare for a huge day of activities.

After Breakfast on day two, (delicious bacon, scrambled eggs and toast) we put on some sunscreen and mosquito repellent, then broke off into our groups to start our activities. The five activities were environmental studies, zipline (My favourite), high ropes (also my favourite), canoeing and mapping/huts. We had dinner (delicious Hamburgers) and then did our final post-dinner activity, which was tabloid sports.

Morning came and it was time to do our last activity and then wrap up and head home. Woorabinda was very fun and action packed despite being 2 days and everyone enjoyed it.

symbols from the Aboriginal language. In P.E we have been doing discus and shotput for athletics day. In STEAM we are making websites. For Athletics day we go in our house groups and age groups and then we do lots of activities.

Overall, it has been a very fun week in 3/4 and we can't wait to update you again on what's happening.

Cheers, Patrick (3/4D)
