

TERM 4

26 OCTOBER 2023

Newsletter

G'day Carrum Primary School!

Term 4 has recently started and we've had a few big things on. Last Friday, we had two events on. One of them was the cricket team making the Division Final, which is a big achievement for them and they came a very close second. Also on Friday, Woody and I went down to St Louis De Montfort's to participate in Day 2 of the annual Big Green Schools Conference to present our idea of 'The Chicken Bells' to plenty of other schools. We did very well and ended up coming fourth of about 12 schools, which we are very proud of.

In other news, we also had three students participating in regional athletics which they were amazing in, and they all made Top 5. There is just about two months left of the year, and the year sixes will be planning all of their farewell events.

Enjoy your final term of school, work hard, and be very nice to your teachers.

*Cheers, Eamon
School Captain*

Celebrating 122 Years 1901-2023

Last week, the 3/4s went to Camp Rumbug.

I think we were all a bit nervous but excited as well. We had a really nice time in our cabins and the food was great but we found sleeping a bit difficult. The activities were the best part like the giant swing and the marshmallow roasting. Overall, it was a good camp.

In Inquiry we are looking at shelters and what materials make good shelters. In STEAM we are using some materials from the shed to make moving vehicles. In class, we have new books and a reading activity matrix. An activity matrix is a list of activities you can choose to do each week. We are also learning how to write explanation texts. We are becoming experts in things like tornadoes, tsunamis, volcanoes and earthquakes. I think there might even be someone exploring how the heart beats.

Curriculum Day (student free
day)
20 November

It is almost November and the end is in sight. During October, we have been learning about measurement, including length, capacity, mass and time.
For writing we have been creating our own books, including a blurb, 'About the Author' section, character and setting profiles, a plan and the story itself. In Reading we have been profiles, a plan and the story itself. In Reading

we have been focussing on language features.
For Inquiry we have been learning about minibeasts. We had an incursion where we saw lots of different butterflies.
